MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street.

A Verifax copy of a page of notes handwritten in partly Russian and partly English, original of which had been found in the wallet of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at New Orleans, Louisiana, by the Police Department at the time of his arrest on August 9, 1963, was examined and discussed with MARINA OSWALD. The writing on this piece of paper is fragmentary and much of it is not understandable. The following notes are what can be made out by Mrs. OSWALD.

14. GEORGE 7-14-53.

The items appearing on this page of paper have been numbered by Special Agent BOGUSLAV and correspond to the position of the notes on the original page of notes beginning about the middle of the page with what appear to be the words, "Zoe Muher", although this purports to be Cyrillic writing, and ending at the bottom of the page. The original page of these notes has been forwarded to the FBI Laboratory for examination.
